LEWIS SENTENCED TO BE HANGED.

-FEBRUARY 1 THE DAY PIXED FOR EXECUTION.

vesterday by Judge Cowing. The prisoner was convicted last week of murder in the first degree in hilling Alice Jackson, at No. 84 West Third-st. Lewis and Alice Jackson, both colored, lived together for two or three years as man and wife. On his trial Lewis persisted in saying that the woman shot herself while struggling with him. He was much excited while under examination as a witness, but remained entirely impassive while the sentence was pronounced. Judge Cowing, after denying the motion of Joseph F. Moss, Lewis's lawyer, for a new trial, said:

Moss, Lewis's lawyer, for a new trial, said:

John Lewis, the solemn duty of pronouncing upon you the highest sentence prescribed by the law now ecvolves upon the Court. No one who listened to the evidence on the trial would have come to any other conclusion, justify and fairly, than that reached by the jury. On the trial you were the most pronuced observer and Listener in the court, and your levity when a witness in your own behalf can only be accounted for by one of two reasons. You effect have a wirled or callous heart or you little appreciate the enormity of your offence and the awful doom that avails you. Marders are becoming too prevalent in this country. Conviction must follow crime, and wiff, punishment follow conviction. The sentence of the Court is that you be taken hence to the City Prison, and that on Friday, the first day of February next, you be there hanged by the neck until you be dead.

Lewis was then surrendered to the custody of the Lewis was then surrendered to the custody of the Sheriff and taken back to the Tombs. One of the officers reported that Lewis said that he did not care what was done with him, so long as he had enough to cat. As an appeal will be taken, Lewis will not be hanged for several months.

A CRISIS APPROACHING FOR BALL-PLAYERS. * Hassball men are still talking about the attitude taken by the New-York players to force up their bination among the players; still, many people were found who thought such a condition of things probable. in B. Day and Joseph Gordon, one of the director of the club, thought such a scheme highly improbable. To-morrow is the day on which contracts and reservation-lists must be sent to the president of the League at Washington. This is the first movement toward enforcing the famous "amendment," and the outcom which they signed sent on to Washington. The reservasent on. The local club will forward its list tomorrow, but will not mention the amount of salary paid the players under reservation who have not signed. In case President Young demands the list, then it will be forwarded to him.
